1 TO PLAINTIFF DANIEL KEATING-TRAYNOR AND TO HIS ATTORNEY OF RECORD:

2 YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that on October 20, 2008 at 2:00 p.m., in 3 Courtroom 15 of this Court, located at 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94102,
 4 Defendants AC SQUARE, INC., AFSHIN GHANEH and ANDREW BAHMANYAR, (hereinafter
 5 collectively referred to as "Defendants") will move this Court for an Order granting monetary
 6 sanctions in the amount of $45,756.13 against Plaintiff, Plaintiff's counsel of record, Daniel Berko,
 7 and the Law Office of Daniel Berko as the reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by 8 Defendants in defending against Plaintiff's unmeritorious Complaint and First Amended Complaint
 9 in case number CV-08-3035-MHP pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 11 and 28
 10 U.S.C § 1927.

11 This motion is made on the grounds that Plaintiff and his counsel filed the instant
 12 action for alleged violations of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act (hereinafter referred to as the 13 "FLSA") on June 10, 2008 at a time when they both knew, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence
 14 should have known, that the FLSA claims raised in the Complaint and the First Amended 15 Consolidated Complaint were barred by the statute of limitations. The fact that Plaintiff and his 16 counsel knew their FLSA causes of action were time-barred is clearly shown not only by the fact
 17 that Plaintiff admitted he last worked for AC Square, Inc. on about May 2, 2005 in his first 18 complaint filed against AC Square, Inc., but expressly testified under oath in his deposition that he 19 did not work any overtime for AC Square, Inc. after April 23, 2005, he did not recall doing any work for 20 AC Square, Inc. after May 3, 2005, and in no way, shape or form did any work for 21 AC Square, Inc. after the end of May 2005. This motion is also based on the fact that Plaintiff and 22 his counsel continued to prosecute their FLSA claims despite Defendants repeated requests that it be 23 dismissed. Rather, they filed an First Amended Consolidated Complaint that did nothing to address
 24 the statute of limitations bar but required Defendants to continue to defend this unmeritorious action.
 25 This motion is further based on the fact that this Court granted Defendants' motions to dismiss
 26 finding each cause of action was barred by the statute of limitations and Plaintiff could not amend
 27 the Complaint to cure the defect. This motion is also based on the fact that Plaintiff and his counsel 28 did these acts at a time when they already had another action pending against AC Square, Inc. Thus,

1 it is clear that Plaintiff and his counsel had no legitimate purpose in filing this Complaint but filed it
 2 to harass Defendants, unreasonably and vexatiously multiply the litigation, and unnecessarily
 3 increase the litigation costs.

4 This motion is based on this Notice of Motion and Motion, the attached
 5 Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the accompanying Declaration of Benjamin A. Emmert
 6 filed herewith, the complete files and records of this matter, and on any such evidence and argument
 7 that the Court deems necessary at the hearing on this motion.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

A. THIS COURT HAS JURISDICTION TO HEAR AND RULE ON DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES UNDER FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE, RULE 11 AND 28 U.S.C § 1927

12 As stated by the Supreme Court in Cooter & Gell v. Hartmax Corp., 496 U.S. 384
 13 (1990), "It is well established that a federal court may consider collateral issues after an action is no
 14 longer pending." Id. at 395. "[M]otions for costs or attorney's fees are 'independent proceeding[s] 15 [or collateral issues] supplemental to the original proceedings and not a request for a modification of 16 the original decree.'" Id. The voluntary or involuntary dismissal of a complaint does not divest a 17 court of jurisdiction to consider and rule on a motion brought pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil 18 Procedure, Rule 11. Id. at 399; see also *Red Carpet Studios Division of Source Advantage, Ltd. v.
 19 Stater*, 465 F.3rd 642, 645 (citing Cooter & Gell and holding the dismissal of a complaint does not
 20 divest the court of jurisdiction to hear and rule on a motion brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. section 21 1927). In fact, a "court's jurisdiction to issue sanctions under 28 U.S.C. § 1927 [, Rule 11] or 22 pursuant to a court's inherent authority is ever present." Red Carpet Studios Division of Source 23 Advantage, Ltd., supra, at 465 F.3rd 645. "Thus, even 'years after the entry of a judgment on the 24 merits' a federal court could consider an award of counsel fees." Cooter & Gell, supra, at 496 U.S.
 25 at 395.

B. DEFENDANTS' MOTION IS TIMELY

27 Northern District of California, Local Rule 54-6 provides the procedure for parties
 28 bringing motions for attorney's fees. Rule 54-6(a) states, in pertinent part, "Unless otherwise

1 ordered by the Court...motions for awards of attorney's fees by the Court must be served and filed
 2 within 14 days of the entry of judgment by the District Court." Federal Rule of Civil Procedure,
 3 Rule 54 defines a "judgment" as including "a decree and any order from which an appeal lies." Fed.
 4 R. Civ. P. 54(a). An order granting a motion to dismiss pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
 5 12(b)(6) is appealable and therefore constitutes a "judgment" for the purposes of Federal Rule of 6 Civil Procedure, Rule 54. See McGuckin v. Smith, 974 F.2nd 1050, 1052-53 (9th Cir. 1992)
 7 (overruled in on other grounds in WMX Technologies, Inc. v. Miller, 104 F.3rd 1133 (9th Cir. 1997)).

8 This Court granted Defendants' motions to dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint on August
 9 22, 2008. (See Declaration of Benjamin A. Emmert in Support of Defendants' Motion for Sanctions 10 Under FRCP Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. 1927 (hereinafter referred to as "Emmert Decl."), Exh. I). The 11 Court did not grant Plaintiff leave to amend his Complaint or further amend the Complaint and 12 therefore this Order is appealable. Id. Defendants filed this motion by September 5, 2008. Thus, this 13 motion was filed within the time limits specified Local Rule 54-6(a).

14 C. DEFENDANTS HAVE COMPLIED WITH THE PROCEDURAL
 15 REQUIREMENTS FOR BRINGING THIS MOTION FOR ATTORNEY'S
 16 FEES UNDER FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE, RULE 11

17 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, Rule 11 states, in pertinent part, "The motion must 18 be served under Rule 5, but it must not be filed or presented to the court if the challenged paper, 19 claim... [or] contention ... is withdrawn or appropriately corrected within 21 days after service."
 20 Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(b)(2). Defendants served the instant motion for sanctions/attorney's fees on 21 Plaintiff's counsel on July 28, 2008. (See Emmert Decl., Exh. G). Plaintiff's counsel did not 22 withdraw or otherwise dismiss this improper action. In fact, rather than acknowledge the 23 deficiencies with his claims and withdraw the Complaint, Plaintiff's counsel chose to compound his 24 error, filed an First Amended Consolidated Complaint and continued to pursue this matter until the 25 Court granted Defendant's motion to dismiss on August 22, 2008. (See Emmert Decl., Exh. E).
 26 Defendants did not file the instant motion until September 5, 2008, more than 21 days after service.
 27 Thus, Defendants have complied with the procedural requirements for filing a motion for 28 sanctions/attorney's fees under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, Rule 11.

1 D. DEFENDANTS HAVE COMPLIED WITH THE PROCEDURAL
2 REQUIREMENTS FOR BRINGING A MOTION FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES
3 UNDER LOCAL RULE 54-6(B)

4 Northern District of California, Local Rule 54-6(b) states:

5 Unless otherwise ordered, the motion for attorney fees must be supported by 6 declarations or affidavits containing the following information:

7 (1) A statement that counsel have met and conferred for the purpose of 8 attempting to resolve any disputes with respect to the motion or a statement
9 that no conference was held, with certification that the applying attorney made 10 a good faith effort to arrange such a conference, setting for the reasons the 11 conference was not held.

12 As shown in the accompanying declaration of Benjamin A. Emmert, on August 26, 13 2008, counsel for Defendants sent Plaintiff's counsel a letter stating that Defendants would be 14 moving to recover their attorney's fees and costs incurred in this action and inviting Plaintiff's
15 counsel to discuss resolving this issue informally. (See Emmert Decl., Exh. M). Plaintiff counsel 16 responded by stating "there is no basis for negotiations on your so-called fees." (See Emmert Decl., 17 Exh. N). Thus, Defendants have made a good faith attempt to resolve this issue informally, but have 18 been rebuffed by Plaintiff's counsel.

19 II. INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

20 Plaintiff's putative class action for alleged violations of the FLSA against Defendants 21 in this action was inappropriate, legally unsupportable, and/or without factual foundation when filed.
22 As fully described below, in Defendant's Motion to Dismiss under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 23 Rule 12(b)(6), and this Court's Order granting Defendants' motion, Plaintiff's FLSA claims raised in 24 this action were without factual support and were clearly time-barred by when the action was filed 25 and this fact was known to both Plaintiff and his counsel. Specifically, Plaintiff's Complaint and 26 First Amended Consolidated Complaint contained two causes of action for alleged violations of the 27 federal FLSA. Plaintiff sought to recover overtime that was allegedly earned but unpaid. (See 28 Emmert Decl., Exhs. C and E). However, prior to these complaints being filed, Plaintiff admitted that he last worked any overtime for AC Square, Inc. on April 23, 2005. (See Emmert Decl., Exh. K pp. 78:10-12, 21-24; 79:13-22; 80:7-8, 25; 81:1-6; 95:14-21; 97:20-21; Exh. L). He also admitted the last day he specifically recalled working for AC Square, Inc. was about May 3, 2005. (See

1 Emmert Decl., Exh. J, pp. 24:24-25; 25:1-2; 175:11-25; 176:5-8, 20-25; 177:1-4; Exh. K pp. 18:12-
 2 25; 19:1-22). However, even if he did work sometime past May 3, 2005, he absolutely did not work
 3 for AC Square, Inc. after the end of May 2005. Thus, as this action was not filed until June 10, 4 2008, Plaintiff's FLSA claims were clearly barred by the two or three year statute of limitations.
 5 Moreover, because this action was brought as a class action and Plaintiff did not file the requisite
 6 written consent with this Court until August 12, 2008, claims were even more untimely. (See 7 Emmert Decl., Exh. H).

8 Additionally, this action was the third of four actions Plaintiff filed against AC
 9 Square, Inc. for the same alleged wrongs. (See Emmert Decl., Exhs., A, B, C & D). Plaintiff filed
 10 an original Complaint in San Mateo County Superior Court on July 7, 2006, case number CIV
 11 456118, a second Complaint in the San Mateo County Superior Court on June 29, 2007, case
 12 number CIV 464144, this third Complaint in the same court on June 10, 2008, case number CIV
 13 473571 (removed case number CV-08-3035-MHP), and a fourth Complaint, case number CV-08-
 14 2907-MHP, on June 11, 2008. On August 11, 2008, Plaintiff filed an Amended Consolidated
 15 Complaint in this action purporting to plead different facts and legal theories. (See Emmert Decl., 16 Exh. E). The Amended Complaint alleges essentially the same facts save for the improper and bad 17 faith addition of Defendants' attorneys as additional co-conspirators, "factual" allegations regarding 18 how Defendants benefited from alleged non-payment of overtime and other "facts" showing how 19 Defendants committed overt acts occurring within the statutory period of three years. However, 20 Plaintiff's second Complaint is still on-going and therefore his filing of the third, fourth and the 21 Amended Complaint which are barred by the statute of limitations can only have been done for an 22 improper purpose to cause unnecessary delay, needlessly increase litigation costs by attempting to 23 moot Defendants' 12(b)(6) Motion to Dismiss this action. Further, this Amended Complaint was 24 filed for the improper purpose of harassing Defense attorneys by threatening Defendants' attorneys 25 with legal action.

26 On July 28, 2008, Defendants notified Plaintiff's counsel that his FLSA claims were 27 time-barred and requested he voluntarily dismiss the action. (See Emmert Decl., Exh. G).
 28 Defendants also specifically notified Plaintiff's counsel that they would move to recover their attorney's fees and costs in the event Plaintiff failed to dismiss the Complaint. However, rather than heed Defendants' advice and warning, Plaintiff unjustifiably continued to pursue this Complaint, opposed Defendants' motions to dismiss and filed the further defective First Amended Consolidated Complaint. With each step Plaintiff and his counsel chose to compound their error rather than acknowledge the deficiencies and rectify the situation. It was not until this Court granted Defendants' motion that they were able to have this Complaint dismissed and achieve that which the Plaintiff and his counsel should have done long before.

III. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

A. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1. Plaintiff's First Complaint

Plaintiff filed his first Complaint against AC Square, Inc. in the San Mateo County Superior Court on July 7, 2006, action number CIV 456118 (hereinafter referred to as the "Original Complaint") (See Emmert Decl., Exh. A.). The Original Complaint contained five causes of action for: (1) nonpayment of wages in violation of California Labor Code section 201; (2) failure to pay overtime wages in violation of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198; (3) violation of California Labor Code section 2802; (4) wrongful termination; and, (5) failure to provide personnel file/failure to provide itemized wage statements in violation of California Labor Code sections 226, 432 and 1198.5. Id. Plaintiff claimed that he worked for AC Square, Inc. from approximately January 30, 2005 to May 2, 2005. (Emmert Decl., Exh. A, ¶ 5). In fact, Plaintiff alleged that AC Square, Inc. terminated his employment on May 2, 2005. Id. As pertinent to this motion, the Original Complaint alleged AC Square, Inc. failed to pay Plaintiff compensation for all hours that he worked. Id. Plaintiff dismissed his first, second, third and fifth causes of action without prejudice on June 25, 2007 and his fourth cause of action for wrongful termination was dismissed following a grant of summary adjudication.¹

¹ It should be noted that in the 2006 action, CIV 456118, Plaintiff dismissed his wage and hour claims just a few days before trial, but refused or failed to dismiss his wrongful termination action, despite a successful motion for summary adjudication on this issue filed by AC Square. (See Request for Defendant AC Square, Inc.'s Request for Judicial Notice Filed in Support of AC Square, Inc.'s Notice of Motion and Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's First and Second Causes of Action from Complaint, case number cv-08-3035-MHP). After requesting a hearing to challenge the tentative

1 2. Plaintiff's Second Complaint

2 After dismissing the Original Complaint, Plaintiff filed a second Complaint against 3 Defendant in the San Mateo County Superior Court on June 29, 2007, action number 464144
 4 (hereinafter referred to as the "Second Complaint") (Emmert Decl., Exh. B). Plaintiff's Second
 5 Complaint contains five causes of action for: (1) violation of California Business and Professions
 6 Code section 17200; (2) violation of California Labor Code section 2802; (3) failure to pay overtime
 7 wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 510 and 1194; (4) failure to furnish itemized wage
 8 statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226; and, (5) failure to pay wages due. Id. This 9 Complaint, like the Original Complaint, alleges Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff compensation for 10 all hours worked. The first through fourth causes of action are brought on behalf of Plaintiff and all
 11 other similarly situated individuals. Id. The fifth cause of action was brought by Plaintiff on his own
 12 behalf. Id. Interestingly, unlike the Original Complaint, Plaintiff's Second Complaint omits any 13 allegations as to when he worked for Defendant.

14 3. Plaintiff's Third Complaint

15 On June 10, 2008 Plaintiff filed the subject Complaint in the San Mateo County
 16 Superior Court, action number 473571, removed action number CV-08-3035-MHP (hereinafter 17 referred to as the "Third Complaint") (Emmert Decl., Exh. C). It, like the Second Complaint, is 18 styled as a class action on behalf of Plaintiff and all other similarly situated individuals. Id. The 19 Third Complaint names as defendants AC Square, Inc. and adds as defendants, Comcast, Inc., and 20 individual defendants, Afshin Ghaneh and Andrew Bahmanyar. It contains five causes of action for:
 21 (1) conspiracy to violate California Business and Professions Code section 17200; (2) violation of 22 the FLSA; (3) conspiracy to violate the FLSA; (4) failure to pay monies at termination of

23 ruling in the Motion for Summary Adjudication, Plaintiff failed to appear at the hearing and the 24 motion was granted. (See Emmert Decl., ¶ 16). Plaintiff then failed to appear at trial, or at least 25 inform the court that he was dismissing his wrongful termination claim. Id. Plaintiff then failed to 26 appear at three consecutive Order To Show Cause hearings regarding the disposition of his wrongful 27 termination claim. Id. He then also filed an utterly meritless, and very untimely Motion For New 28 Trial and then again failed to appear at the hearing to challenge the tentative ruling in Defendant's favor. Id. In all, Plaintiff and his counsel have failed to appear six straight times at hearings in this action. Id.

1 employment; and, (5) conspiracy to violate California Labor Code section 558. Id. This Complaint,
 2 like the Original Complaint and the Second Complaint alleges the same wrongful conduct on the 3 part of the defendants, including AC Square, Inc. The significant differences between Original and 4 Second Complaint is the Third Complaint alleges different causes of action and names the additional 5 defendants Comcast, Inc., Afshin Ghaneh, and Andrew Bahmanyar. However, the underlying 6 allegations are identical, including his failure to allege the time period he worked for Defendant.²

7 4. Plaintiff's Fourth Complaint

8 The day after filing his Third Complaint, on June 11, 2008, Plaintiff filed another new 9 Complaint in the Northern District of California, action number CV-08-2907-MHP (hereinafter 10 referred to as the "Fourth Complaint"). The Fourth Complaint, like the Third Complaint names as 11 defendants AC Square, Inc., Comcast, Inc. Afshin Ghaneh, and Andrew Bahmanyar. (Emmert 12 Decl., Exh. D). The Fourth Complaint contains two causes of action for: (1) violation of the FLSA;
 13 and, (2) conspiracy to violate the FLSA. Id. The Fourth Complaint is essentially the same as the 14 Third Complaint, but only alleges causes of action for alleged violations of the FLSA. Also, like the 15 Second and the Third Complaint, the Fourth Complaint fails to allege the dates Plaintiff claims to 16 have worked for Defendant.

17 5. Plaintiff's Amended Consolidated Complaint (Fifth Complaint)

18 On August 4, 2008, Plaintiff simultaneously filed an opposition to Defendant's
 19 Motion to Dismiss his third Complaint, action number CV-08-3025-MHP and his Amended
 20 Consolidated Complaint, purportedly amending his Third Complaint. (See Emmert Decl., Exhs. E & 21 F). The Amended Consolidated Complaint again names as Defendants, AC Square, Inc., Comcast, 22 Inc. Afshin Ghaneh, and Andrew Bahmanyar. (Emmert Decl., Exh. E), and again, as pertinent to 23 this motion, contains two causes of action for: (1) violation of the FLSA; and, (2) conspiracy to 24 violate the FLSA. Id. Again, Plaintiff's Amended Consolidated Complaint alleges essentially the 25 same facts, albeit in more detail, and improperly alleges Defendants' attorneys as co-conspirators.

26 ² The Third Complaint also contains a number of state law claims that are not at issue in this motion.
 27 These causes of action were remanded to the State Court after this Court dismissed Plaintiff's 28 Federal causes of action.

1 While Plaintiff's opposition to the Motion to Dismiss the Fourth Complaint filed with the court
 2 improperly threatens to add Defendants' attorneys at some time in the future, Defendants' attorneys
 3 are not added as Defendants in the Amended Complaint. (See Emmert Decl., Exh. F). In Plaintiff's
 4 Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Dismiss the Third Complaint, Plaintiff stated that his Amended
 5 Consolidated Complaint alleges that Plaintiff's statute of limitations was equitably tolled by 6 Defendants' knowledge of Plaintiffs allegations. However, the Amended Complaint did not allege
 7 any discernible equitable tolling of statutes of limitations as to Plaintiff's claims. Plaintiff's
 8 Amended Consolidated Complaint did not cure the defect of his failure to allege dates Plaintiff
 9 claims to have worked for Defendant.

10 B. STATEMENT OF ALLEGATIONS/FACTS

11 1. Statement of Allegations in Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint

12 Plaintiff's Amended Consolidated Complaint alleged that he "worked as a technician" 13 for AC Square, Inc. and was "formerly employed by AC [Square, Inc.] as a cable television and 14 computer technician for the purpose of installing, upgrading, disconnecting and providing similar 15 services to consumers who use the services and equipment of Comcast [Inc.]." (Emmert Decl., Exh.
 16 E). Plaintiff further alleged that he was not paid for overtime and AC Square, Inc. failed to pay
 17 each class member wages during all hours that they worked. (Emmert Decl., Exh. E). His first 18 cause of action for violation of the FLSA alleges defendants failed "to pay overtime" and his second
 19 cause of action for conspiracy to violate the FLSA alleges defendants combined together in a tacit
 20 and express agreement to knowingly and intentionally deprive Plaintiff and all class members of 21 their rights to overtime pay as provided by the FLSA. (Emmert Decl., Exh. E).

22 2. Statement of Facts

23 The critical operative facts for this motion are the dates Plaintiff claims to have 24 worked for AC Square, Inc. Obviously, if Plaintiff worked for AC Square, Inc. outside the statute of 25 limitations, his claims for overtime compensation under the FLSA would be barred and no artful
 26 pleading could change this fact. Plaintiff's deposition was taken in the original action on November 27 21, 2006 and in the second action on May 23, 2008. (See Emmert Decl., Exhs. J and K). While the 28 Second, Third and Fourth Complaints omit any allegations as to when Plaintiff worked for AC

1 Square, Inc., he specifically testified in his deposition he last worked for AC Square, Inc. outside the 2 period of the statute of limitations.

3 Plaintiff testified that he worked for AC Square, Inc. from about February 8, 2005 to 4 May 2005. (See Emmert Decl., Exh., K, pp. 17:1-2; 24:24-25; 25:1-2; 175:11-25; 176:5-8, 20-25; 5 177:1-4. Exh. L, pp. 18:12-25; 19:1-22; 20:19-25). While Plaintiff attempted to testify that he
 6 might have worked for AC Square, Inc. after May 3, 2005, he could not recall any date past May 3, 7 2005 he actually did any work. More importantly he specifically admitted he did not work for AC
 8 Square, Inc. past the end of May 2005. Specifically, Plaintiff testified:

9 Q. And just before we move on to the next document, the next,
 10 the last page of Exhibit 19 indicates work on Sunday, 11 Monday and Tuesday, May 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Does that 12 comport with your understanding of when the last day you 13 worked at AC Square was?

14 A. No. I believe I worked more days in May. I believe I 15 worked later in May.

16 Q. And when you say later in May, what days in later May?
 17 A. In the last two weeks of May.

18 Q. You've indicated that you believe you worked after May 19 3rd.
 A. There was a day I worked with Max.

20 Q. So do you recall more than one day working with Max after 21 May 3rd, or do you just remember one?
 A. I remember one day.

22 Q. Just the one day. And you think it was sometime after the 23 3rd. Can you give me any estimate of how long after, week
 24 after, two weeks after?
 A. No, I don't know.

25 Q. So it could have been the fourth?

26 A. Could have been the fourth, could have been the 20th, could 27 have been the 25th.
 (Emmert Decl., Exh. J, pp. 24:24-25; 25:1-2; 175:11-25; 28 176:5-8, 20-25; 177:1-4).

Q. When was the last time you worked?

A. At AC Square.

Q. So May – last time you actually did any work –
 A. The end of May.

Q. So your recollection and your testimony is that you worked, 28 actually worked at AC Square doing cable installation and things at the end of May. Is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you sure about that?

A. My – my answer to your question is that I worked, physically worked after May 3rd.

Okay.

A. In the month of May.

(Emmert Decl., Exh. K pp. 18:12-25; 19:1-22).

4 AC Square, Inc.'s employees, such as Plaintiff, are paid every two weeks in the first 5 and third week of the month. (Emmert Decl., Exh. K, p. 24:12-22). In fact, Plaintiff testified he 6 received his paycheck every other Saturday. (Emmert Decl., Exh. K, p. 24:12-22). Plaintiff also 7 testified that he believed each paycheck he received from AC Square, Inc. did not accurately account
8 for all the hours he had worked. (Emmert Decl., Exh. J, pp. 91:20-25; 92:1-25; 93:1-25; 94:1). In 9 fact, Plaintiff testified he complained to AC Square, Inc. about his perceived deficiencies in his 10 paychecks each time he received one. (Emmert Decl., Exh. J, pp. 91:20-25; 92:1-25; 93:1-25; 94:1).

In addition to admitting that he did not work for Defendant after the end of May 2005, Plaintiff also expressly admitted that he did not work any alleged overtime after April 23, 2005. During his first deposition taken in the Original Action, Plaintiff testified he prepared a document estimating the number of overtime hours he claims to have worked. (Emmert Decl., Exh. J, pp. 197:18-25; 198:1-4; 199:19-25; 200:1-14). Plaintiff authenticated this document during his second deposition and testified that it accurately represented the days he claimed to have worked overtime for AC Square, Inc. (Emmert Decl., Exh. K, pp. 78:10-12, 21-24; 79:13-22; 80:7-8, 25; 81:1-6; 95:14-21; 97:20-21; Exh. L). Plaintiff testified to this document in his second deposition as follows:

Q. Do you recall preparing an estimate of your overtime in your previous action?

A. Yes.

Q. Defendants' Number 1 is a one-page document, contains a chart with three columns, and I'll represent to you that was produced by your former counsel at your previous deposition.

Q. So my first question about this document is: Do you recognize it?

Yeah

Q. You've seen this document before?

A Uh-huh

Q. Is that a yes?

Yes

Q. And what is this document, if you know?

A. Um, it's my start – it's the days I worked, the time of my last job and how much overtime.

Q. [D]id you prepare this document?
A. Correct.

Q. Okay. So do you believe this is accurate?

Å. Um -

Q. You prepared – this document you prepared?

A. Yeah.

Q. So it's an accurate reflection of the hours you worked and the overtime you worked on those days?

A. To the best of my knowledge at the time.

(Emmert Decl., Exh. K pp. 78:10-12, 21-24; 79:13-22; 80:7-8, 25; ^{81:1-6).}

Plaintiff's counsel, Mr. Daniel Berko, personally attended Plaintiff's deposition taken in the Second Action during which Plaintiff testified to both his tenure at AC Square, Inc. and his claimed overtime. (Emmert Decl., Exh. K, p. 2:10-12). Thus, Mr. Berko would be expected to know when Plaintiff worked for AC Square, Inc.

IV. LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. APPLICABLE LEGAL STANDARDS FOR SANCTIONS UNDER RULE 11 OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 11, has been designed “to deter dilatory or abusive pretrial tactics and to streamline litigation by excluding baseless filings.” 17 Schwarzer, et al.; Practice Guide: Federal Civil Procedure Before Trial, National Edition; § 17:61 (TRG 2007), citing Cooter & Gell v. Hartman Corp., 496 U.S. 384, 393 (1990). To accomplish this objective, Rule 11 requires that each filed pleading be signed by an attorney or unrepresented party.³ U.S.C.S. Fed Rules Civ. Proc. R. 11(a). Every signature on a pleading is a certification of the merits of the filed document. U.S.C.S. Fed Rules Civ. Proc. R. 11(b),(c). Rule 11 imposes sanctions upon parties or their representatives who file a pleading for “any improper purpose.” U.S.C.S. Fed Rules Civ. Proc. R. 11(b)(1). (Emphasis added.) An improper purpose includes harassing a party, causing unnecessary delay, or needlessly increasing the cost of litigation. U.S.C.S. Fed Rules Civ. Proc. R.

³ In this regard, Rule 11 makes it incumbent upon a court to “strike an unsigned paper unless the omission is promptly corrected after being called to the attorney’s or party’s attention.” U.S.C.S. Fed. Rules Civ. Proc. R. 11(a).

1 11(b)(1). Such purpose also includes engaging in “procedural maneuvering” in an endeavor to
 2 obtain a “tactical advantage.” Meyer v. California Int'l. Chem. Co., 1998 U.S. App. LEXIS 31606
 3 (9th Cir. 1998).

4 Rule 11 makes it incumbent upon counsel to, prior to filing a pleading with the court,
 5 conduct an “inquiry reasonable under the circumstances” so as to ensure the filed pleading is not
 6 frivolous and contains factual contentions that have evidentiary support, and allegations warranted
 7 by the law. U.S.C.S. Fed Rules Civ. Proc. R. 11(b)(2),(3). See, also, Estate of Gianna Blue v.
 8 County of Los Angeles, 120 F.3d 982, 985 (9th Cir. 1997). The Ninth Circuit has defined frivolous 9 filings as “those that are both baseless and made without a reasonable and competent inquiry.”
 10 Estate of Gianna Blue v. County of Los Angeles, 120 F.3d 982, 985 (9th Cir. 1997), quoting Buster v.
 11 Greisen, 104 F.3d 1186, 1190 (9th Cir. 1997). For instance, while by happenstance, a factual
 12 allegation in a pleading that is based on hearsay might ultimately prove to be accurate, absent actual 13 investigation, such arbitrary reliance on hearsay would not insulate a plaintiff or its counsel from 14 sanctions. Garr v. U.S. Healthcare, 22 F.3d 1274, 1279 (3d Cir. Pa. 1994). [“A shot in the dark is a 15 sanctionable event, even if it somehow hits the mark.”].

16 In addition, where a reasonable investigation would have revealed a claim lacks merit
 17 in light of existing law, a court may impose sanctions as a penalty for bringing and continuing such a
 18 claim. Id. The filing of a claim time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations is considered 19 wholly improper for the purpose of Rule 11. Estate of Gianna Blue, supra. (Court affirmed the 20 award of sanctions against plaintiff because reasonable investigation would have revealed claim 21 time-barred by statute of limitations.) See, also, Mir v. Little Company of Mary Hospital, (9th Cir.
 22 1988) 844 F.2d 646, 653.

23 Rule 11 authorizes the imposition of monetary or non-monetary sanctions. U.S.C.S.
 24 Fed Rules Civ. Proc. R. 11(c)(4). The standard for determining whether sanctions are to be issued 25 under Rule 11 is objective. Salivary v. City of Los Angeles, 780 F.2d 823, 831 (9th Cir. 1986), 26 overruled on other grounds by Cooter, supra, 496 U.S. 384 (1990). Sanctionable conduct under 27 Rule 11 does not require a showing of bad faith. Ibid.; see, also, Plante v. Fleet National Bank, 978
 28 F. Supp. 59, 69 (D.R.I. 1997); and Smith v. Ricks, 31 F.3d 1478, 1488 (9th Cir. 1994). A party or its

1 counsel's good faith belief that the party's claims are non-frivolous or were not filed for an improper
 2 purpose is not a defense where objectively, the pleaded claims are legally barred or the purpose of 3 the filing is improper. See ibid. See, also In re Keegan Management Co., Securities Litigation, 78
 4 F.3d 431, 434 (9th Cir. 1996).

5 Finally, where an improper purpose is advocated or a meritless claim is filed by an
 6 experienced lawyer, there arises a compelling inference that the action was filed with counsel's
 7 knowledge of the claim's inappropriateness or lack of merit. See, e.g., Huetting & Schromm, Inc. v.
 8 Landscape Contractors Council of Northern Calif., 790 F.2d 1421, 1427 (9th Cir. 1986).

9 B. PLAINTIFF AND HIS ATTORNEY HAVE ENGAGED IN SANCTIONABLE
 10 CONDUCT UNDER FRCP RULE 11

11 In this case, Plaintiff and his counsel have engaged in sanctionable conduct by 12 disregarding the plain fact that this action is barred by the statute of limitations. This fact is 13 specifically admitted by Plaintiff himself. However, despite such knowledge, Plaintiff and his 14 counsel chose to file and continued to prosecute the unsupported Third Complaint. The only 15 reasonable conclusion that can be drawn from this fact is that the Third Complaint was filed for sole 16 purpose of harassing and prejudicing AC Square, Inc. Therefore, Plaintiff and his counsel should be 17 sanctioned for their wholly improper Fourth Complaint.

18 1. The Imposition Of Sanctions Is Appropriate, Because A Reasonable 19 Investigation Would Have Revealed That The Claims Pleded In Plaintiff's Fourth Complaint Are Time-Barred

20 a. Plaintiff's Cause of Action For The Violation Of The Fair Labor 21 Standard Act ("FLSA") Is Barred By The Applicable Statutes Of Limitations

22 Plaintiff, through his Third Complaint, seeks to recover unpaid overtime
 23 compensation allegedly due and owing from the defendants pursuant to the provisions of the FLSA.
 24 (Emmert Decl., Exhs. C & E). In general, the statute of limitations for an alleged violation of the 25 FLSA is two years. See 29 U.S.C. § 255(a). However, where an employer's violation is willful, the 26 limitations period is extended to three years. Id. The running of the statute under the FLSA 27 commences "at the time the employer breaches his duties under the Act . . ." Huss v. City of 28 Huntington Beach, 317 F. Supp. 2d 1151, 1161 (C.D. Cal. 2000), citing Unexcelled Chem. Corp. v.

1 United States, 73 S.Ct. 580, 584 (1953). The statute of limitations for an overtime compensation
 2 claim accrues at each regular payday immediately following the work period during which the 3 services for which overtime compensation is claimed. Mitchell v. Lancaster Milk Co., 185 F. Supp
 4 66, 70 (D.C. PA 1960). (“It is well settled that ‘[a] separate cause of action for overtime
 5 compensation accrues at each regular payday immediately following the work period during which 6 the services were rendered and for which overtime compensation is claimed.’”).

7 In this case, Plaintiff and his counsel knew or should have known that any FLSA
 8 claim Plaintiff may have had against Defendant expired prior to the filing time of the Fourth 9 Complaint. This is so, because Plaintiff has admitted he last worked for AC Square, Inc. more than 10 three years prior to filing the Fourth Complaint. Specifically, Plaintiff admitted in his Original 11 Complaint that he worked for Defendant from approximately January 30, 2005 to May 2, 2005.
 12 (Emmert Decl., Exh. A, ¶ 5); See American Title Ins. Co. v. Lacelaw Corp., 861 F.2d 224, 226 (9th
 13 Cir. 1988). (“[U]nder federal law, stipulations and admissions in the pleadings are generally binding
 14 on the parties and the Court.”). Moreover, in both his first and second deposition, Plaintiff expressly 15 testified that he absolutely did not work for AC Square, Inc. past the end of May 2005. (Emmert
 16 Decl., Exh. J, pp. 24:24-25; 25:1-2; 175:11-25; 176:5-8, 20-25; 177:1-4 and Exh. K pp. 18:12-25;
 17 19:1-22). He also specifically testified that he was “fired” in May 2005. (Emmert Decl., Exh. K, p.
 18 18:21-23).

19 Although AC Square, Inc. has no record of Plaintiff working for it past May 3, 2008,
 20 if Plaintiff is to be believed, he testified at most that he only worked for AC Square, Inc. for one day 21 after May 3, 2005. More importantly, Plaintiff admitted in a document he personally prepared and 22 stated was accurate, that he did not work any overtime for AC Square, Inc. after April 23, 2005.
 23 (Emmert Decl., Exh. K pp. 78:10-12, 21-24; 79:13-22; 80:7-8, 25; 81:1-6. Exh. L). Thus, any claim
 24 for overtime compensation accrued on AC Square, Inc.’s next regular payday following April 23, 25 2005.

26 Given that AC Square, Inc. paid its employees, including Plaintiff, on the first and 27 third Saturday of each month for the employees’ work in preceding two weeks and Plaintiff last 28 worked overtime on April 23, 2005, any potential FLSA cause of action expired by May 7, 2008, the regular payday immediately following the work period during which the services were rendered and for which overtime compensation is claimed. Mitchell v. Lancaster Milk Co., 185 F. Supp 66, 70 (D.C. PA 1960). Because Plaintiff did not file this action until June 10, 2008, his cause of action for an alleged violation of the FLSA is barred by the statute of limitations.

Moreover, even if Plaintiff attempts to recant his sworn testimony and now claim that he worked overtime sometime May, 2005, any claim for overtime compensation would have to had been brought within three years of his last date of employment. The latest date this could be according to Plaintiff's testimony is June 1, 2008, assuming he worked the last day in May, 2005. See Cal. Labor Code § 201 (stating, in pertinent part, "If an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of the discharge are due and payable immediately."); Huss v. City of Huntington Beach, 317 F. Supp. 2d 1151, 1161 (C.D. Cal. 2000) (stating the running of the statute under the FLSA commences "at the time the employer breaches his duties under the Act . . ."). Thus, even if Plaintiff now claims he was fired on the last day of May, 2005, his FLSA cause of action is clearly barred by the statute of limitations because this Third Complaint was not filed until June 10, 2008, after the statute of limitations had expired.

In addition, Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel cannot plead ignorance of this fact as each admission was made by Plaintiff himself. Thus, this is not a situation where facts showing an action is barred by the statute of limitations are only discovered after a complaint is filed. In this action, Plaintiff and his counsel knew when Plaintiff last worked for Defendant, when Plaintiff was terminated from Defendant's employment and therefore must have known when the statute of limitations on a FLSA cause of action would run. Therefore, this Court should impose sanctions on Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel for filing the Third Complaint knowing full well that it is barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

b. Plaintiff's Cause Of Action For Conspiracy To Violate The FLSA Is Barred By The Applicable Statutes Of Limitations

In light of the matters discussed above, Plaintiff and his counsel knew or should have known that Plaintiff's second cause of action for conspiracy to violate the Fair Labor Standards Act is also time-barred. See Maheu v. CBS, Inc., 201 Cal. App. 3rd 662, 673 (1988). ("In an action

1 based on civil conspiracy, the applicable statute of limitations is determined by the nature of the 2 action in which the conspiracy is alleged.”). Therefore, this Court should impose sanctions on 3 Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s counsel for filing and pursuing this claim knowing it was barred as a matter 4 of law.

5 Conspiracy is not an independent cause of action “but a legal doctrine that imposes 6 liability on persons who, although not actually committing a tort themselves, share with the 7 immediate tortfeasor a common plan or design.” Applied Equip. Corp. v. Litton Saudi Arabia Ltd., 7
 8 Cal. 4th 503-511 (1994). As such, it has the same statute of limitations as the claim on which it is 9 based. Maheu v. CBS, Inc., 201 Cal. App. 3rd 662, 673 (1988). To state a claim for conspiracy, “the 10 complaint must allege (1) the formation and operation of a conspiracy; (2) the wrongful act or acts
 11 done pursuant thereto; and (3) the damage resulting from such act or acts.” General American Life
 12 Ins. Co. v. Rana, 769 F. Supp. 1121, 1125 (N.D. Cal. 1991). “To establish the ‘wrongful act’
 13 element of a civil conspiracy, defendant must satisfy all of the elements of a cause of action for some 14 other tort or wrong.” Id. “[A] simple failure to comply with statutory overtime requirements...does 15 not qualify” to support a claim for conspiracy. Reynolds v. Bement, 36 Cal. 4th 1075, 1090 (2005).
 16 Moreover, a conspiracy necessarily involves two or more people or entities. Black v. Bank of 17 America, 30 Cal. App. 4th 1, 6 (1995). “Agents and employees of a corporation cannot conspire with 18 their corporate principal or employer where they act in their official capacities on behalf of the 19 corporation and not as individuals for their individual advantage.” Reynolds v. Bement, 36 Cal. 4th 20 1075, 1090 (2005).

21 C. PLAINTIFF AND HIS ATTORNEY HAVE ENGAGED IN SANCTIONABLE
 22 CONDUCT UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 1927

23 28 U.S.C. Section 1927 states:

24 Any attorney or other person admitted to conduct cases in any court of the United 25 States or any Territory thereof who so multiplies the proceedings in any case 26 unreasonably and vexatiously may be required by the court to satisfy personally the 27 excess costs, expenses, and attorneys’ fees reasonably incurred because of such 28 conduct.

29 28 U.S.C. § 1927

30 In Van Berkel v. Fox Farm and Road Machinery, 581 F. Supp 1248 (D.C. Minn.

1 1984), the Court ordered the plaintiff's counsel to reimburse defendant's costs and attorney's fees in 2 a situation analgaous to this action. The plaintiff in Van Berkel was injured by a piece of machinery
 3 on September 6, 1976. Id. at 1249. Plaintiff's counsel filed an action for negligence, product
 4 liability, and breach of express and implied warranties against the manufacturer on September 2, 5 1983. Id. The complaint incorrectly alleged the accident occurred on September 6, 1977. Id. After 6 conducting discovery, defense counsel discovered the accident actually occurred on September 6, 7 1976 and requested the plaintiff's counsel dismiss the action as it was clearly barred by the statute of 8 limitations. Id. When the plaintiff's counsel refused, defendant successfully moved for summary
 9 judgment on the statute of limitations issue. Id. The defendant then moved to recover its attorney's 10 fees and costs incurred in defending this action that was clearly barred by the statute of limitations
 11 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. section 1927. Van Berkel, 581 F.
 12 Supp. at 1250.

13 The Court granted the defendant's motion and ordered plaintiff's counsel to pay 14 defendant's attorney's fees and cost. Id. at 1251. The Court noted that Rule 11 "provides that the 15 signature of an attorney to a pleading is a certification that [the attorney] has made a reasonable 16 inquiry upon which to base a belief that the allegations of it are well grounded in fact and law." Id.
 17 at 1250. The Court also noted that 28 U.S.C. Section 1927 "authorizes imposition of costs and 18 attorneys fees upon an attorney who multiplies proceedings unreasonably and vexatiously." Id. It 19 held that plaintiff's filing of the complaint that was barred by the statute of limitations and his 20 continued prosecution of the action when confronted with facts that showed the lawsuit was time
 21 barred warranted imposing sanctions. Id. at 1250-51.

22 Plaintiff's counsel in this action improperly filed this action when he knew, or in the 23 exercise of reasonable diligence should have known that the FLSA causes of action were time-
 24 barred. Moreover, he compounded his error when he refused to dismiss the Complaint despite being 25 presented with incontrovertible evidence establishing this fact. The statute of limitations for an 26 FLSA cause of action is two or three years. The statute of limitations for FLSA actions accrue on the 27 date the employee's wages are not paid. Biggs v. Wilson, 1 F.3rd 1537, 1540 (9th Cir. 1993). In this 28 case Plaintiff admitted in his original Complaint that he last worked for AC Square, Inc. on May 2,

1 2005. Moreover, as Plaintiff's FLSA causes of action are for alleged unpaid overtime, this
 2 Complaint is even more time-barred as he admitted that he last worked any overtime for AC Square,
 3 Inc. on April 23, 2005. Therefore Plaintiff filed this action at least one month after the statute of 4 limitations had run. Thus, as in Van Berkel, Plaintiff's counsel should be sanctioned for improperly
 5 filing and prosecuting this action, for refusing to dismiss the Complaint despite evidence that it was 6 time- barred, and despite repeated requests by counsel for Defendants.

7 D. SANCTIONS ARE WARRANTED FOR COUNSEL'S MISCONDUCT

8 Rule 11(c)(2) and 28 U.S.C. Section 1927 authorize a Court to impose as sanctions
 9 reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred as a direct result of improper conduct by counsel.
 10 Federal courts commonly award monetary sanctions to moving parties when the sanctioned party 11 pursues a frivolous lawsuit or where its complaint is factually misleading. See, e.g., Truesdell v.
 12 Southern California Permanente Medical Group, 293 F.3d 1146, 1153 (9th Cir. 2002), remanded to 13 209 F.R.D. 169 (C.D. CA 2002). (Plaintiff and his attorney misrepresented material facts); Walker v.
 14 Norwest Corp., 108 F.3d 158, 162 (8th Cir. 1997). (Plaintiff filed a diversity suit without alleging
 15 facts of diversity); Johnson v. A.W. Chesterton, 18 F.3d 1362 (7th Cir. 1993). (Attorney filed claim
 16 that was not well grounded in law and fact); Plante v. Fleet National Bank, 978 F. Supp. 59, 69
 17 (D.R.I. 1997). (Attorney failed to investigate viability of claims prior to filing lawsuit); Van Berkel v.
 18 Fox Farm and Road Machinery, 581 F. Supp 1248 (D.C. Minn. 1984).

19 Plaintiff's actions warrant the imposition of similar sanctions in this case. As a result
 20 of Plaintiff and his counsel's conduct, Defendant has incurred unnecessary attorneys' fees and costs
 21 defending frivolous claims filed for improper purposes. See Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 11(c)(2); 28 U.S.C. §
 22 1927; see, also, Cooter & Gell v. Hartmarx Corp., 496 U.S. 384, 406 (1990). Therefore, Defendant
 23 seeks the reimbursement of the fees and costs incurred in litigating this case. The total fees incurred
 24 to date by Defendant in the defense of this Complaint is $45,756.13. (Emmert Decl., ¶¶ 17-20.)

25 V. CONCLUSION

26 For the foregoing reasons, Defendant AC Square, Inc. respectfully requests that the 27 Court grant its motion for sanctions and award it all attorneys' fees and costs expended in litigating
 28 Plaintiff's Third Complaint.
